

EMBER

With its smooth stone texture and large formats, the Ember series was born to give shape to interior spaces with their own personality. Its neutral appearance allows it to be used in both commercial and residential architectural projects. The precision of its details and its realistic appearance allow it to transform any space into a welcoming and sophisticated environment.

Con su suave textura de piedra y sus grandes formatos, la serie Ember ha nacido para dar forma a espacios interiores con personalidad propia. Su aspecto neutro le permite tener cabida tanto en proyectos de arquitectura comercial como residencial. La precisión de sus detalles y su apariencia realista permiten transformar cualquier espacio en un entorno acogedor y sofisticado.
